Healthy Sports Week

We have had an amazing Health and Sports week this week and we hope you have enjoyed looking at some of the highlights on Twitter. Thank you so much for sending the children into school with the correct kit so that they could enjoy the fun packed activities that we planned.

ASM kindly offered us taster sessions in Kwik Cricket, basketball, circus skills, circuits and boom box - so we need to thank them for their brilliant coaching this week. We also need to say a huge thank you to Craig Leese at Smash Tennis, from Congleton Tennis club, for providing really fun tennis coaching, Jake Taylor from 'Chance to Shine' for fabulous cricket coaching sessions, to Simon Jones from Congleton Rugby Club and finally not forgetting Andy Boyle from the Fire Service for coming to talk to us about water safety!!

On top of all of this, our staff have planned some fabulous activities to encourage healthy lifestyles and the children have really enjoyed these. My last thank you has to be for our amazing Sports Leaders who have been brilliant in running activities for our EYFS children this week, to make sure that they haven't missed out either - I am so proud of you all - Well done!

A huge WELL DONE to the following children who were awarded a golden ticket this week and chose a prize from the golden chest:-

Alanah McGregor

Out of School Achievements:

A massive well done the Niamh Roberts who has passed her Stage 3 swimming this week!

A massive well done to Evelyn Taffs for passing her stage 1 swimming this week!

Online safety for pupils with SEND

Being online can be positive for children and young people, including those with additional needs. So much of our communication now happens online, either by messages, in a game or through a video call. The link to the NSPCC website below gives parents and carers a wealth of tips on how to keep their children safe online and to ensure they receive positive experiences when accessing the internet.

<https://www.nspcc.org.uk/keeping-children-safe/online-safety/online-safety-families-children-with-send/>

Talking to people online

 You might want to talk to people online that you know from school or other activities.

 You might want to talk to people online that you haven't met before.

 You might want to talk about your special interests.

NSPCC

 You might want to talk about games you like to play online.

 You might want to talk about feeling sad or lonely.

 We know that talking to people online can be a way to make friends.

 But sometimes talking to people online can come with risks.

NSPCC

What are the risks of chatting online?

 You should talk to your parents or carers before you talk to anyone online. They can help you understand whether it is safe or not.

 Sometimes people online lie about who they are. They might use a photo or name of someone else.

 These people may want to hurt you or be unkind.

NSPCC

Friends online should not:

 Ask you for money.

 Ask you for photos, videos or livestreams.

 Ask you for information that is private.

NSPCC

 Ask you to meet up offline.

 Ask you to keep secrets from parents and carers who keep you safe.

 If someone asks you for any of those things, you should tell your parent or carer.
